Dear General Walters:

I have recently learned that [REDACTED] has a pending application for reemployment with the Central Intelligence Agency.

STAT

I have known [REDACTED] for a number of years and personally feel he would be a tremendous asset to the Central Intelligence Agency. I would like to request your personal attention to his application, and I sincerely hope you will give it every possible consideration. After the final determination is made, I would appreciate your notifying me of your decision.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely,

Herman E. Talmadge

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON

31 January 1974

Dear General Walters:

I am inclosing a copy of a letter written by

to the Office of Personnel.

The letter is self-explanatory and is an application for reemployment with the CIA.

I am writing to bring this to your personal attention because I believe that [REDACTED] is a very unusual young man and it might be worthwhile for you to take a look at his application and determine whether you have a use for him.

His record of accomplishment speaks for itself. I would just like to say that I have known him quite well over the past ten years. He has worked directly and closely with me from time to time. I have found him extremely energetic, capable and loyal. I know that he has a deep and genuine desire to return to his work at the CIA.

I think it is likely that there might be a spot for him with you where he could be of real service to his country, and I wanted you to be aware of my thoughts on this.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

ly,

Howard H. Callaway
